

Leave satellite radio alone. It is the best thing to come along since the invention of radio itself. We don't need to be regulated to death. This is America and we are supposed to have freedom to enjoy life and as far as I am concerned, this includes XM radio and all of its offerings.